Prevalle is a municipality located in the province of Brescia, in Lombardy, located in the area of the morainic hills southwest of Lake Garda and on a predominantly hilly territory, characterized by rural and green landscapes, with agricultural fields, vineyards and woods that offer a peaceful and natural atmosphere.

Prevalle's location, at the foot of the morainic hills, makes it ideal for those who love nature and outdoor activities. The area is crossed by numerous cycle paths and hiking trails that allow you to enjoy the beauty of the surrounding landscape. The Torrente Vrenda flows near the town, adding charm to the surrounding countryside and helping to make the territory fertile and suitable for cultivation.

In short, Prevalle is a municipality that offers a quality of life linked to the tranquility of the countryside and the beauty of the landscape, while being well connected to the main urban centers of the area, such as Brescia and the towns of Lake Garda. Its history, its traditions and its proximity to nature make it a pleasant place to live and visit.
